Hi Mr.Smith

I'm a big fan of Nando's Pizza Hub. You seem to be doing well at attracting new customers and I also heard that you are opening up two new branches of your restaurant this summer.

However, I feel I can help your staff to increase their productivity. My company Samsung helps businesses just like yours to increase their productivity by 50% by saving the time wasted in washing dishes. You will not only save time but also reduce your man-hours required.

Here's a recent case study of how we helped one of our clients save upto 3 hours per day by not washing dishes.

If our services interest you, could you please respond to this email by signing up here.
