2. Testimonial Request/Review Email

Subject: Your words will make our day.

Hey John,

I hope you are enjoying your iPhone 13.

As you might realize prospective buyers typically couldn't care less with regards to what we say about our item, yet they keep in mind what our clients need to say.

I wanted to check in about any feedback you might have, just a few sentences describing your experience with us, how the phone is working out for you, or whatever changes you feel were done or need to be done.

Here are some testimonial examples from other clients to give you an idea of what to write about. If you are able to do this in the next couple of days, that would be awesome. It should take you less than three minutes.

As always, feel free to reach out if you have any questions. We love to hear from our clients.

Thanks a lot in advance!

Hey Jay,

My name is Amandeep, and I'm the content creator at iPhone LLC.

I noticed you have amazing contributors on eCommerce.com, and I was wondering if you accept guest bloggers.

It's amazing that you just work with novels & valuable contributions by experienced bloggers. Indeed, I am prepared to keep up with that norm. To give you a thought of the quality I can bring to the table, check a few posts that I have composed for different websites:

If I look like someone you can accept as a contributor, I'd love to write a post on any of them that you provide. We have a few products, which can also be incorporated into the articles.

Whichever topic you choose, I'll be happy to write well-researched content, supported with facts, stats, and screenshots.

Awaiting to hear back from you
